

Solution:

The entire research budget should be expensed in Year 1 ($3 million as R&D expenses) because no new marketable products have been created yet and the research is uncertain.

It could not yet be capitalized as intangible asset, because there is no proof of economic benefit yet.

If it is completed, we need to amortize it over its useful life. It cannot be used indefinitely.