

Solution:

The table is as follows:

Company	Per Share Data			Ratios & Percentages
	Price	Earnings	Dividend	P-E	Dividend Yield	Dividend Payout
FedEx	$93.58	$4.61	$0.48	20.30	0.51%	10.40%
UPS	$72.56	$3.88	$2.10	18.70	2.90%	54.23%
Deutsche Post	€11.88	€0.96	€0.70	12.38	5.90%	72.70%

(1)

(a) Deutsche Post

(b) Deutsche Post

(c) Deutsche Post

(a) The most attractive investment seems to be Deutsche Post, because they have a lower P-E and a moderate yield of dividend.

(b) The least attractive investment seems to be FedEx, because it has a very high P-E value (maybe overvalued stock) and offers very low dividends compared to the others.
